

Gemeenskaplike respek vir mekaar

Remarkable that so many of the 1968 class made sacrifices, spent a lot of money, travelled from far and near to attend the past weekend's functions.

What is it that draws mature gentlemen with different personalities, aspirations, religions, attitudes, back to their old school after FIFTY years? Yes, surely the school, all the activities we involved ourselves in during those carefree years ... and the teachers who tried to make better human beings of us, must have had a special influence.

Maar daar is ook 'n besondere gemeenskaplike respek vir mekaar, 'n tasbare kameraderie, ordentlikheid en lekkermensigheid wat ons teruglok na mekaar toe, na ons opvoedkundige tuiste toe om nuwe energie te put om ons lewend en positief te hou totdat ons weer ontmoet.

Ek sê die grootste dankie vir elkeen van julle wat hier was. Al was daar hopeloos te min tyd om saam met almal te kuier, was dit 'n vreugde om die vibrasie op te tel van mense wat jou lewe help vorm het. Dit was heerlik om julle vrouens (weer) te ontmoet, om na almal se stories te luister, om sekere ouens vir die eerste keer by 'n reunie te verwelkom. And how special was it to shake hands with those who came from overseas! Your presence added precious value to all the functions.

Wilhelm, Fred en Henry, julle sterk en subtile leierskap maak dat ons maklik en trots volg. Thomas Ferreira - DANKIE DANKIE! En jou wonderlike website gaan sorg dat ons gereeld geaktiveer sal bly. Aan al die ander, nogmaals 'n reuse dankie. Nie net dat julle hier was nie, maar omdat elke liewe een van julle iets positiefs en opbouend bylas tot ons flenter wêreld. I sincerely hope and believe that all our buddies battling with health and other issues will soon be sailing smoothly and happily towards our next reunion. May all of us cherish and enjoy the fond memories which were created during our get-together!
